

DOMINANT SPECIES ACROSS NYC

Status

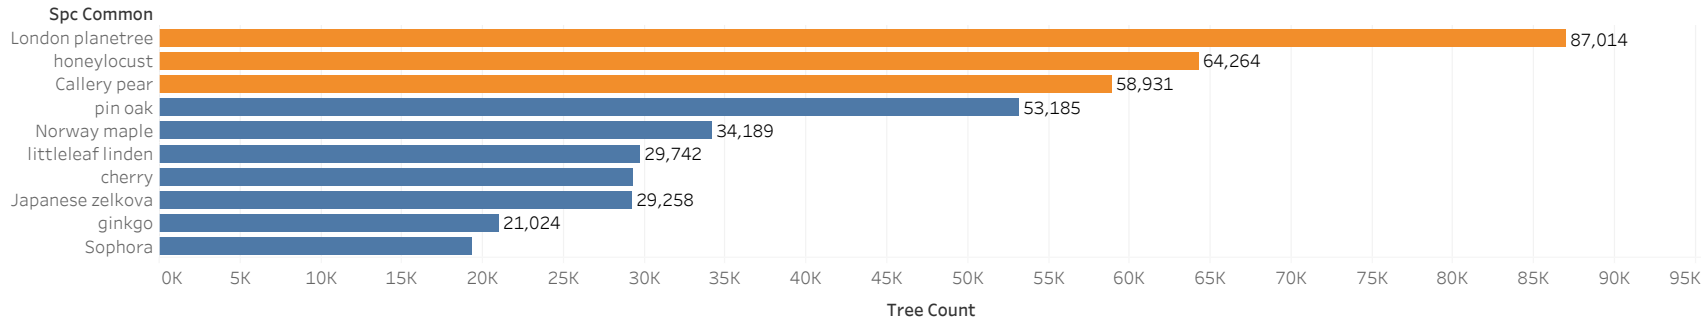

☒ Alive

☒ Dead

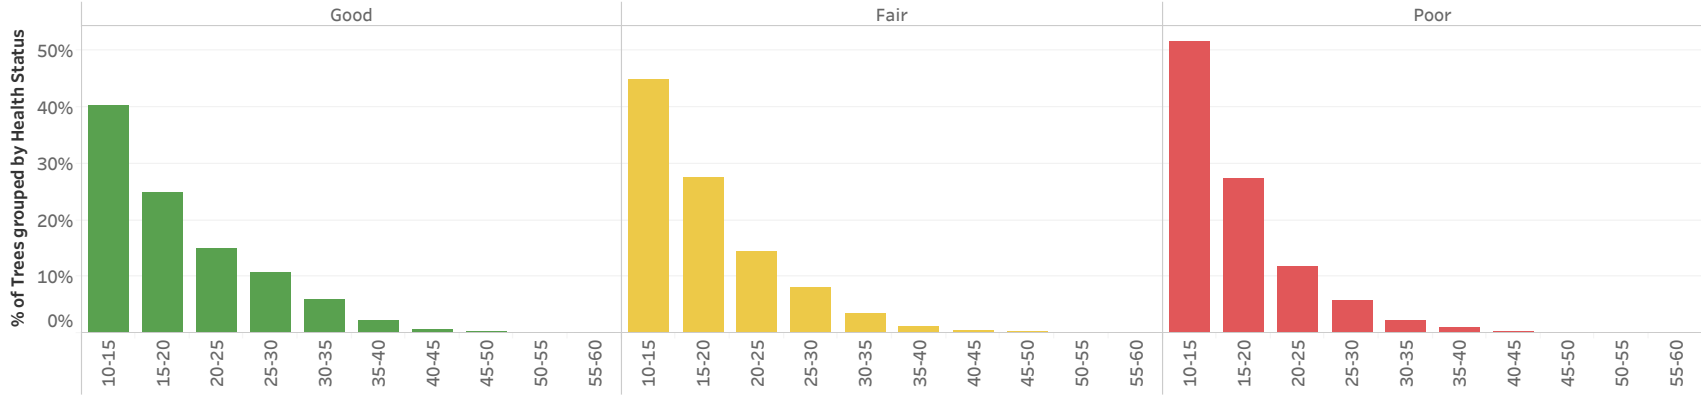

☒ Stump

Top 10 species across New York

Top 3 species are London Planetree, Honeylocust, and Callery Pear cumulatively accounting for about 31% of tree population

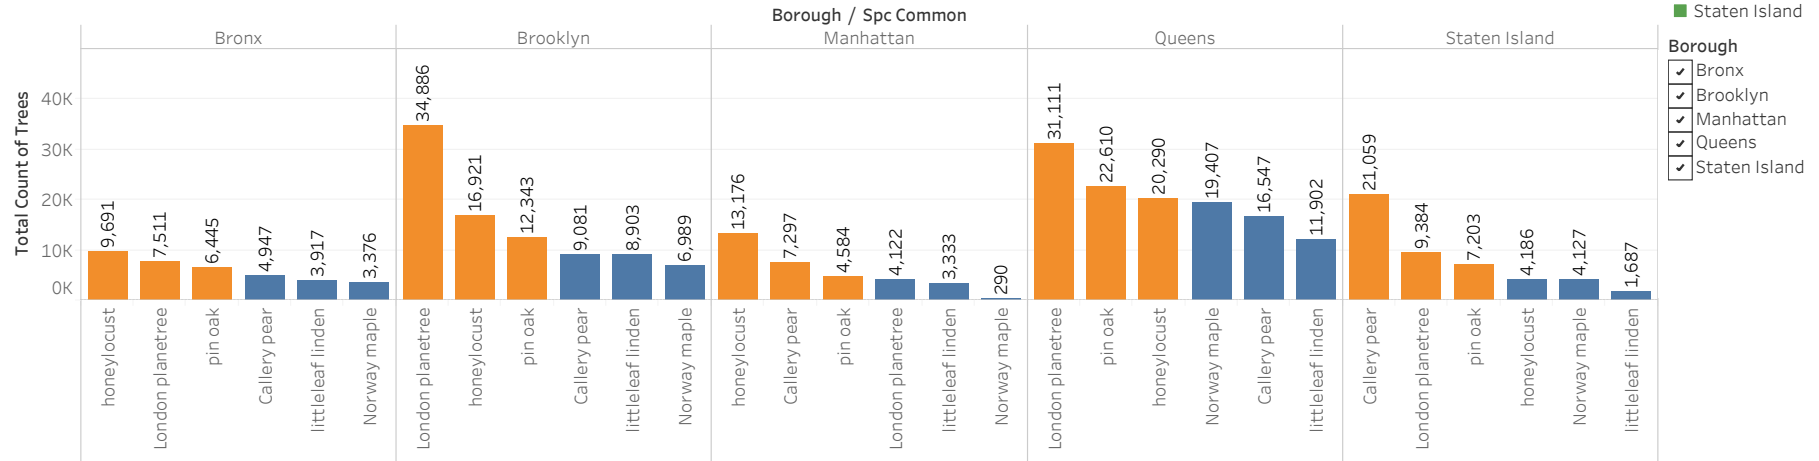

Upon checking distribution in each groups, most trees have diameter between 10 and 35 inches
However, trees belonging to poor health have more percentage of trees with lesser diameter (10-20 inches)

MOST COMMON SPECIES ACROSS NEW YORK

New York Boroughwide Top 6 Tree Species

The top 3 species in all 5 boroughs belong to London Planetree, Honeylocust, Callery Pear, and Pin Oak

London planetree is the most common specie across Queens and Brooklyn, whereas Honeylocust is the most common specie in Bronx and Manhattan

